DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Examiner acknowledges response by applicant's representative received 7/12/04.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-4 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-24 of U.S. Patent No. 6,419,578 in view of Gajor (456). The patented and the pending claims set forth the same invention of substantially the same scope except the invention patented claims 1-24 lack the parlay feature. However, it is well known in the art to use a parlay feature in game play to provide players with additional wagering options and this feature is shown by Gajor.

In view of it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the patented method of play of claims 1-24 by including a parlay feature for game play.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Comment regarding marking of patent copy

Examiner appreciated and noted counsel's articulation concerning the provided copy of referenced U.S. Patent No 6098985, which included yellow magic markings on various portions.

It is not standard practice of the Patent office to provide applicants or counsel with reference copies that are marked in any manner. All references to particular portions of patents are made directly in the text of Office actions (as were the references made in the office action dated 5/14/2004).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and are cited to show the state of art with respect to features of the claimed invention.
